The Bernhardt May Charter a Steamer for a Theatrical Tour of the World.

Bernhardt belongs the credit of projecting the most audacious theatrical scheme on record. The idea is a tour of the few cents of reaching $25. world on a specially chartered steam-ship of not less than 3,000 tons, carrying the company, scenery, and, incidentally, freight to help defray the expenses, which would be nearly $1,000 a day.

Henry E. Abbey was in close consultation with Mr. Spreckels, of the Oceanic steamship line, on the subject during his recent visit to this city. It has leaked out that he has almost completed ne-gotiations for the exclusive use of a steamer of the Mariposa type for two

Mme. Bernhardt has figured out that by going round the world it will be pos-sible to play at all the leading cities at the height of the season in each place. The company can live cheaply on ship-board, heavy freight rates on scenery will be avoided, and one-night stands be made possible even in the Orient. It is proposed to sail from Havre, touch at the leading ports of Portugal and thence proceed to the Mediterranean, running shore to visit Italian and French Vienna, Buda-Pesth and Bu-

Thence crossing the Atlantic the company will finish its tour in London and Paris. Bernhardt is enthusiastic at the idea.
